A New Back for an Old One—How it is Done in Maine.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one.

Mrs. E. G. Carver, 98 Oak St., Lewiston, Me., says:—"For about two weeks last January I had such an acute attack of pain in the back that when stooping or lifting I was in misery. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at a drug store. They helped me from the first and I continued taking them until the pain and lameness disappeared. I am now free from these troubles, and give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and no other.

Aunt Patty's Plain Talks.

Aunt Patty can't scold the girls for many, many years she was a girl herself and a motherless girl too, and I know of no sadder thing, and so will have just a quiet talk to heart talk. This is not for silly girls, nor fast girls but sensible girls, reasonable girls that by and by expect to be grand and noble women.

I always envied girls their mothers for it seems as though I had missed mine all the way through. Kind mothers, gentle and true mothers, oh, girls, make such mothers your confidants, never keep anything hidden from them, talk over your perplexities and troubles with them and it may save you many a heart-ache. There is so much of the false in the world that one hardly knows where to look for the true, and believe me it is only the true things that are worth having. These are what make us better, nobler and wiser.

Aim to be of some good in the world, help some one to rise to a higher plane, and above all learn to be a help and a comfort to the mother that has endured so much for your sake.

Gems of Thought—Selected.
You don't work to win; who has not sometimes sighed for a royal road to the attainment of some desired object? Who has not tired of the plodding, wearying steps by which alone it must be reached?

Sooner or later the lesson is learned by all, that although in fancy we may attain great heights with ease, to reach them in reality we must go to the bottom of the ladder and place our feet firmly on each succeeding round. No royal road to the acquisition of wealth, or fame, or goodness, or to success in the most trivial affairs of life.

Would we lay up treasures of wealth, we must toil early and late, foregoing ease and leisure for the greater good that shall result from present sacrifice. Would we be wise and learned, industry and patience in the pursuit of knowledge must fill each waking hour. Would we attain to great excellence of character we must resolutely put aside the sordid that so easily beset us, and step by step, little by little, is everything accomplished that is great or good and of which the world has need.

Free, and What Everybody Wants.
Perfect health and strength, to dare and to do, that's what you want and you know it. Here is a sure way to get it and it is free. Dr. Greene of 84 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., is the most successful specialist in the world in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He is also the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervous Blood and Nerve Remedy. He has established a remarkable system of letter correspondence, by which you can write him about your complaint, telling just how you feel and stating each symptom from which you are suffering. He will answer your letter, describe the remedy thoroughly and tell you a sure way to regain health and strength. And for all this you have nothing to pay. He gives most careful attention to every letter, and describes each symptom so exactly that you cannot fail to understand precisely what ails you. He makes a specialty of curing patients through letter correspondence. You have no fee to pay and you don't have to leave home. Here is the best opportunity you ever had to get well. Will you accept or reject it?

Adam Through the Garden.

There is much in ancient story. Told of Adam when in his prime, When he thought all joys substantial, And that life was but a sublime.

They placed him in a fine old garden Where all was strangely bright and fair. Where all things round were quiet and lovely, And flowers with fragrance filled the air.

Then Adam loved his home in Eden, And all things lovely to survey, And with all these small pleasures, With all the joys that he had known, His somehow felt a kind of sadness, Because that he was just alone.

And while brooding over sorrow— Sorrow he could no longer keep— Lived a tired child he felt to weeping, And like a child he went to sleep.

And when the warden found him sleeping, Sleeping soundly and alone, They quickly cut his appendix, But its name was yet unknown.

When from this slumber they had taken, A wife and love he was given, Adam arose from his deep slumber, And knew this life was all his own.

At once they had a friendly greeting, And many were the vows they paid; They would have had a short vacation, But Adam's pains were not yet paid.

They thought they'd have a home reception, And serve a little fruit and wine; When Eve went out her fruit to gather, She came back as high as nine.

Now Eden's joys are nearly ending, Some golden days still glide along; So Adam and Eve their voices blend, Sweetly sing their chosen song.

"Chance and change are busy over," Life in Eden is not long; We feared we might be there forever, And never know the right from wrong.

Now we have a clearer vision; Now we see as we were seen; Though we regret our old condition, "We may be all we might have been."

When the close of day was nearing, We heard a voice that seemed to say, "Adam, Adam, where art thou?" "What has happened here to-day?"

Now they told just what had happened, Told all the wrong that had been done; Satan heard the true confession, And quickly had his wiggle on.

The warden said, "Life has its trials, In them all you must share; Both must leave your home in Eden, But the thought is hard to bear."

Satan's case was made on trial, And he heard the cryer's call; But being firm made no denial, So was simply doomed to fall.

Then Satan said, "If these in Eden Can no longer here remain; Then let us sing, all sing together, 'When shall we three meet again?'"

When this parting song was ended, And they had sung the glad refrain, They heard their baggage checked for Eden, And they all went down on the early train.

NORTH EAST LOVELL.
Mrs. Ella Walker.

Mrs. Ella Walker passed away April 16th. She leaves two sons, Lester W. and Percy, one sister and a mother-in-law to mourn the loss, besides hosts of friends. She was much respected by all who knew her. She has been sick ever since January. It has cast a gloom over this place to part with so hard working a woman, and willing to help any one at any time.

The funeral was at her home at Lovell village, Saturday, April 18th, conducted by Rev. Mr. Stone of Fryeburg. The flowers were very beautiful.

Wasted Labor.
A candidate for parliamentary honors found himself in front of a house near which a number of children were playing.

"Madam, I may kiss these beautiful children, may I not?"
"Certainly," replied the mother.

When he had finished his wholesale contract he turned to the woman and said: "Seldom have I seen lovelier children. You, madam?"

"Ah, of course they are," gallantly suggested the politician. "The little treasures, from whom else could they have inherited those limpid eyes, those rosy cheeks, and those musical voices?" But still the lady blushed.

"By the way, madam," said he, "may I impose on your good nature to the extent of asking that you tell your estimable husband that Mr. Cockrell called upon him?"

"Excuse me, sir," said the woman, "I have no husband."

"But these children, madam—surely you are not a widow?"

"I fear there's some mistake, sir. This is an orphan asylum."

We banish alcohol from our medicines
We give you to consult your doctor

Ask your doctor. "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

A STORY THAT IS CREATING A SENSATION IN THE STATE OF MAINE

THE BELLE ISLERS

By Richard Brinsley Newman

Profusely Illustrated, $1.50 At All Bookstores

As an impartial, fearless, even reckless exposure of the infernal hypocrisy inevitable in church, politics and business, it deserves a high rank, and as a laugh-compelling, blistering satire it is matchless. It is long since we have read a book so keenly enjoyable—Chicago Christian Scientist.

It is a book that will create a stir, especially if some villagers should take it as a reflection upon their town—Springfield Union.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

A Sad Case.

Our townspeople have been recently called to mourn the loss of two of its most estimable citizens in the sudden death of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Johnson. It is a sad story. Fred Johnson, son of the deceased couple, had recently returned from a visit to his brother, Winfield S. Johnson, in Ipswich, Mass., and after his arrival home he developed a case of measles, which with pneumonia caused much anxiety concerning his recovery for several days.

When his illness abated and he seemed to be recovering, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, father and mother, were both seized with measles and in about one week both passed away. Mr. Johnson's death occurred on April 14th, and that of Mrs. Johnson on the 15th, less than 30 hours apart.

Mr. Johnson was a native of Norway and was 64 years of age at the time of his death. He moved to this town in 1895 and with his youthful bride, Fanny (Bancroft) Johnson of Norway, settled on the farm about 3/4 of a mile east of the Flat, ever after occupied by them, where their two sons were born and where the family had in more than forty years become greatly beloved as citizens and neighbors.

Mr. Johnson was well noted as an intelligent and successful farmer and up to the time of the late sickness of himself and wife both had enjoyed excellent health and bid fair to live many years. Mrs. Johnson's age at death was 60 years.

The obsequies presented the unusual spectacle of a double funeral. The sad burial services were solemnized by Rev. L. J. McKinney of Bridgton. The interment was on Tuesday, April 21, in Elmvalle cemetery.

No arrival in our village could have been more warmly welcomed than that of Jennie Hamlin after an absence of three weeks at the N. E. Conservatory in Boston. She is home only on two weeks' vacation.

The V. I. S. whist party was pleasantly entertained by Harold Crooker at his home last Thursday evening. Five tables were filled.

Phil Morton, who has been spending his vacation here, went to Lisbon, Monday, where he will visit his brother, Fred, before returning to his work at Malden, Mass.

Hilda Chapman died at her home here, Monday, of Bright's disease. Funeral services were held Wednesday at noon. A girl of a sunny disposition, patiently enduring her severe sickness, she will be sadly missed from her home circle and among her many friends.

At the republican caucus held Tuesday evening, H. M. Swift and F. A. Frost were elected delegates to attend the district convention to be held at Lewiston, May 12th. O. L. Peabody and Sylvester Cole were elected delegates to attend State convention at Bangor, June 30th.

While raising the roof to Ed. Andrews' grist mill at Bryant Pond it came down, the timbers hitting A. W. Bryant, crushing him to the ground. He was removed to his home here, accompanied by Dr. Packard of West Paris. Dr. Wright of Bethel was called. It was found that only one bone was broken, that being in his left arm near the shoulder. It is doing nicely at the present time.

Suggestions on Home Gardening.

The amateur who wishes to obtain the greatest possible pleasure from the flowers he can grow should study the characteristics of each kind he chooses and see that each serves a purpose. Should be love fragrance, he will find nicotiana affinis with its abundant star shaped white flowers, delightful in its perfume on a summer's evening. It is an excellent plant for a border, planted in front of taller growing shrubs.

He should study color effects in laying out his flower beds. For a bed where a mass of yellow is desired, golden California poppy is useful. It must be sown where it is to bloom as it does not transplant well. For side and back fences, clumps of single and double holly hocks are good, planted in masses. A flower which grows almost as high as a holly hock is rubra golden glow, which produces a wealth of golden flowers good for cutting.

In the backyard garden it is a good plan to devote the space in front of one fence to dabbies and cosmos for those are sure to please the most fastidious flower lover. If there happens to be a sunny exposure in the garden, plant a few pom-pom chrysanthemums, which are hardy. They will give an effective display of tiny flowers in autumn. The Drummond phlox are exceedingly pretty low growing, showy very showy in mass. They last but a few weeks in a warm situation.

Of the dahlias, the cactus and decorative forms are becoming more and more popular every year. They should be planted so their late blossoms in August, September and later will help make the garden bright after many other flowers have ceased blooming.

The pansy or heartsease is one of the oldest and most popular of garden flowers. The brilliancy and variety of their colors make them most useful as border plants.

The amateur may sow seed in the spring, where the soil is moist and not too warm and he will get plants that will blossom until fall. The flowers must be kept picked closely to insure steady blooming.

If earlier blossoms are desired, plants that have been carried through the winter in cold frames should be obtained from the florist. The plants should be set out as soon as the ground is in condition for working and the danger of frost is past. The only cultivation necessary is stirring the ground to keep it from baking and keeping the bed reasonably free from weeds.

The grower who wishes to have his own early plants should sow seed in August or September and transplant the seedlings to pots to be kept in the house or better still to cold frames with good soil where they may remain until winter, when they would be protected by glass and boards.

The "mock orange" of Philadelphia is popularly known as "syringa" and the latter is the botanical name for lilac. The mock orange family comprises about thirty species of hardy, ornamental shrubs varying in height from five to twenty feet, many of them admirably adapted for the decoration of home grounds.

One of the first shrubs to blossom this spring will be the lilac, which is deservedly one of the most popular of plants. It may well be called a "queen of shrubs" and is a favorite because of its remarkable hardiness, the showy clusters of its abundant and fragrant blossoms, and its patience under cultural abuse.

The common lilac (Syringa vulgaris) is the most common in the gardens and from it have sprung a large number of showy forms which are grown in parks and by more expert gardeners. While the lilac grows in almost any soil, to obtain best results it should be planted in rich, well drained soil, somewhat heavy with a little clay in it if possible. [Times.]

E. R. Simpson, who has visited his brother Charles and wife at Mr. Harriman's, has returned to Boston.

Fred Walker and wife spent a few days at his old home here, going to Bangor on a business trip on Monday.

But Besides Catarrh, Hyomei Cures Grip, Coughs and Colds, Croup and Asthma.

Read: If You Are a Sufferer from Catarrh, Reason and Reflect.

"My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal. I raised thick phlegm, and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured solely through the use of Hyomei."

Dr. Philip Z. Hart, Laconia, N. H.

Reader, this is one of thousands of testimonials praising the marvelous curative power of Hyomei. If you are a sufferer, why not try it? The Noyes Drug Store guarantees it, and will refund your money if it fails to cure. Hyomei is not a stomach nostrum; it is dry antiseptic and medicated air, and all you have to do to cure any disease of the nose, throat or lungs, is to breathe it in through the Hyomei inhaler. A Hyomei outfit, including a scientific inhaler, only costs $1.00. Get one to-day. Subsequent treatment is only 50 cents a bottle. Get one now. The Noyes Drug Store takes all the risk. They guarantee it. 19

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

WEST PARIS.
Fire! Fire! Fire!!
The fire alarm was sounded last week Wednesday about 6:30 p. m., and for the second time since the organization of our fire department the fire engine was hurried out and in a few minutes was at the home of Ora H. Marston, who lives with his family in the late Geo. W. Bryant house on Church street, where the cause for alarm was located.
The chimney burned out during the afternoon, causing the family to be on the watch. A little after six it was found that the timbers at the base of the chimney were charred and alive with fire, and then help was called for. Some of the timbers from the engine were poured into the chimney and the fire was soon put out. Very little damage was done as there might have been if immediate help had not been attainable, or if it had happened in the night.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Bryant of South Paris visited friends here the first of the week. D. L. Joslin is again sent here to supply the M. E. church for the coming year.
Mr. Smith's store looks pretty fine since he has it all finished and fixed up inside and painted outside.
The O. E. S. will furnish the refreshments for the May ball at Dunham's hall this week Friday evening.
Mrs. Lucella Morton and George Crockett of South Paris were in town, Saturday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Bates.

Agnes Bicknell, who for many years has worked in Lynn, Mass., has come home and intends to stay this summer with her mother and brother Alton on Curtis Hill.
A few weeks ago Mrs. Rebecca Bryant fell and it was feared had broken her hip but she has improved and is now sitting up. She is a very old lady, aged 88, and lives with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Curtis.
Mr. H. Emery, one of the Civic League State secretaries, from Sanford, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on Good Citizenship, illustrated with stereoscopic views at the Baptist church, Wednesday evening.

Archie N. Edgerly is baggage master at the G. T. station, commenced work this week Monday. It is his intention to learn telegraphy and all general knowledge at the R. R. station business. He boards at Perley Wyman's.
It is expected that there will be preaching services at the usual hour at the Free Baptist church commencing next Sunday. There has been no preaching through the past month of April, partly on account of the muddy traveling.
Mrs. E. L. Wood and two children came Wednesday evening to Falls, where they have been spending the winter, and they will go to keeping house in a part of Will Yates' house in Greenwood, where their goods have been stored.

D. P. Curtis lost his driving horse last Wednesday by accident. While he and his son Elliott were driving down a hill in Tuelltown the harness broke, which frightened the horse and it ran headlong, losing its footing on the side of the road plunged over an embankment and broke its neck. No one was hurt.
Mrs. J. R. Tucker, who went last Wednesday to the C. M. G. hospital, returned this week Monday afternoon. She was operated on for fatty tumor on the front of her left shoulder, not so serious a trouble as was feared when she went away. Her sister, Mrs. Abby Lowe, of North Paris went down Saturday and came home with her.

The long distance telephone station has been moved from S. T. White's drug store to W. H. Lurvey's office in the rear of the post-office block, where he already had the Oxford county and local lines' switch. He now has 15 lines running into his switch-board. Mr. White has five lines left for his own use for private business and one other for which he has to do switching. The removal of the booth gives him a little more needed room for his business.
Mrs. F. L. Wyman has made 450 May baskets for this season's trade and is still being rushed to fill the orders, which she gets from the surrounding towns and cities where they find ready sale. Her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Lurvey, has also made 200 baskets. Mrs. Wyman has hired Fred Reed to work for him again this summer on the Pleasant Valley fruit farm owned by him. Mrs. Wyman has secured a young "Fin" woman to help her in the house. Mrs. Kate Flarinen, who has been in this country only about two years. Her husband has hired out for the season to Lauri Immanuel, who lives a short distance from Mr. Wyman's.

Hezekiah Farrar and Margaret S. Ross were quietly married by Dr. O. K. Yates last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Farrar is a well known and respected resident of this place. Mrs. Farrar is a quiet, nice young lady who came here a stranger to work in Dr. Yates' family a year or so ago. On account of her reticent manner she has made but a few acquaintances. She was married in a pretty party, wearing suit, hat and all to match. The waist was of white lace over silk. They took the afternoon train directly after for a short bridal tour among her relatives. They will be "at home" after May 1st.

The White Sale at the Universalist church last week Wednesday was quite a success. About $50 net proceeds were realized. The entertainment in the evening was very fine, far surpassing many 25c and 50c entertainments that have been given in this place. The traveling companies, who make that their professional business. The program consisted of piano duets by Mrs. Wardwell and her sister, Miss Irish, and Mrs. Shurtleff and Miss Laid, a song by C. A. Bacon, violin solo by Miss Brown. There were readings by Miss Price entitled "Little Bobbie," one by Miss Frost, "The Old Minstrel," accompanied by an echo voice from behind the curtain of parts from the old song, "Away Down upon the Swane River," also a reading by Miss Macduff which was illustrated at the close by a tableau, wedding. The farce entitled "A Sea of Trouble," which was exceedingly well impersonated and well played, closed the entertainment. The admission fee was 10c.

Benjamin Franklin Bates, who for about thirteen years has been in failing health, died last Thursday morning aged 88 years. Mr. Bates was an uncle to L. C. Bates of this place and a native of Summer. His wife, who survives him, was Josephine Augusta Thayer of Paris, the youngest daughter of America Thayer, and has a brother on Paris Hill, called one at Portland, the well known Dr. Augustus S. Thayer. For about thirty years Mr. Bates lived in New Haven, Conn., where he had employment in the large cold storage plant in which L. C.

Bates has such large interests. About four years ago he came here and a good deal of the time he has been confined to the house on account of ill health. Soon after coming here Mr. and Mrs. Bates went to live with his maiden sister Julia on Main street. She died during their first year together but they remained there until Mrs. Bates is left in the little home all alone. He leaves one son, Charles H. Bates, a resident here. The funeral was held at the house at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, Rev. Isabella S. Macduff officiating. Quite a lot of relatives were present and there were beautiful flowers. Interment was at Paris Hill.
Rev. Franklin Van Gorder, who during January and February preached at the Free Baptist church and since then has been boarding at Perley Wyman's, returned to his home in Pennsylvania this week.
The annual meeting of the West Paris Public Library association will be held Monday evening at Good Will hall. A good interest is manifest and it is hoped that all subscribers and interested persons will make an effort to be present. Eight books have recently been given by C. G. Morton, and ten new books added, making all 43 books that have been added this year. The whole number of books now in the library are 629.
